

Mrs. Ellen B. Welsh, 6 Spring St., New Brunswick, said she interviewed Mrs. Gibson at the instigation of the New York "Herald." Said Mrs. Gibson told her of her activities night of the murder which sounded very much like a fairy story. Mrs. Welsh then called on Mrs. Fraley, who stated positively that Mrs. Gibson was not on the Phillips farm the night of the murder. (9/28/26)

Adolph Greenbaum, officer of Metuchen Realty Corp., 206 Broadway, N.Y.C., stated that he heard about a week ago that a woman (a Mrs. Yanchuk residing on Girard Avenue off Hamilton Street, Franklin Township, Somerset County), whom he had sold a lot to sometime ago and who lives near the Gibson farm, in taking a short cut across the Gibson farm to a slaughter house was shot at and wounded by Mrs. Gibson.

9/29/26

Mrs. Salome Cerrenner Eisleitner, said her daughter ran a disorderly house at 119 Academy St. She was arrested because she took a young girl to work for her and permitted 7 men to abuse this young girl, got 3 months in jail and served three days and was told to get out of Newark. She also had a disorderly house on Camel St and one at 47 Orange St., Newark. She ran same kind of house at 339 Broad Street, Trenton, but she had to get out of Trenton as a perjurer. ^{From} 1899 to 1900, she lived with a man named Lee Maring and later another man named Bill Sutter for a couple of years.

(Letter from Mrs. Salome Cerrenner Eisleitner 10/5/26)